Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-7, 10-16, 19-27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Lower et al. (5,613,971).

With respect to claims 1, 10, 19, Lower et al discloses a lever for grasping bone tissue comprising a shaft (12) having a proximal end and a distal end and defining a first channel (20); as best seen in FIG.1, a claw member (16) disposed on the distal end of the shaft for holding the bone tissue; a locking member, as best seen in FIG.1, defining a second channel (40) substantially aligned with the first channel, the locking member movable between a first position and a second position, a rod (22) at least partially received in the first and second channels for engaging the bone tissue; and a retaining member (30) for retaining the locking member in the second position; wherein the rod is axially slidable in the first channel when the locking member is in the first position, as set forth in column 3, lines 20-35, and the rod is substantially prevented from axial sliding in the first channel when the locking member is in the second position; as set forth in column 3, lines 20-35.

With respect to claims 2-7, 11-16, 20-27, Lower et al discloses all the limitations; as set forth in column 2, lines 40-67, column 3, lines 1-67, and as best seen in FIGS.1-4.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 8,9,17,18 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
